Fee:
$199 pp
($209 pp NR)

7:45 AM - Depart from Clearview Lanes, Mount Joy, PA

10:00 AM - Museum of the American Revolution

Self guided tour including the special exhibit The Declaration's Journey which focuses on exploring the history & global impact of the Declaration of Independence from 1776 - today.

12:30 PM - Boxed lunch @ Franklin Square Pavilion

1:30 PM - Historical Bus Tour

2-hour History Maker tour on our motorcoach. A famous familiar face from the past will guide us through Philadelphia's history. There will be opportunities to get off the bus and take pictures but the tour will not go inside any of the Historic Sites due to Park Service regulations and time constraints.

5:30 PM - Dinner @ Black Powder Tavern

Enjoy a 3 course dinner including bread service, choice of soup or salad, entrees such as Sauteed Chicken Piccata, Red Wine Braised Short Rib, Shrimp & Penne Genovese, followed by your choice of Cheesecake or Seasonal Fruit Crisp for dessert, along with soft drinks, coffee, and tea.

8:45 PM - Appx. return to Mount Joy, PA

Overview

Discover Pennsylvania's Revolutionary War history with a day in Philadelphia.

Visit the Museum of the American Revolution where you'll uncover and hear compelling stories about the diverse people and complex events that sparked America's ongoing experiment in liberty, equality, and self-government. Take a guided motorcoach tour delivered by a familiar face from the past and end the day at the Black Powder Tavern, which dates back to 1746! It served as a secret meeting place for leaders like George Washington, and famously housed a secret black powder cache for the Continental Army during the harsh Valley Forge winter of 1777 making it a symbol of American spirit and historic landmark for stagecoach travelers and soldiers alike.
