

Philadelphia Flower Show with George Weigel

This is the world's biggest and oldest indoor flower show. The 2020 Flower Show will focus on plants and gardens of Mediterranean climates. "Riviera Holiday" will highlight the French Riviera. Mediterranean climates have moderate to warm temperatures, dry summers, and rainier winters. That opens the door to displays from such diverse settings as the fynbos of South Africa, the California coast, and the west coasts of Chile, Mexico, and Australia.

The trip includes transportation to and from the Pennsylvania Convention Center, show ticket and on-board show tips and gardening tidbits by garden writer George Weigel.
